Frequently Asked Questions

There is no charge for Carver's to participate in the ODCCC.

Carvers are responsible for selecting their own division.

The ODCCC will not place or move carvers between divisions.

There is no required theme for your carvings -- either main pieces or quick carves.

All wood for both main pieces and quick carves is provided.

Carvers receive 35% of the selling price of their Quick Carve pieces.

You will be judged on your main piece on the final day; the carving remains yours to keep or sell.

Carvers may have one assistant. Assistants may not help with the Quick Carve.

Assistants may assist with the main piece as long as they do not alter the shape of the carving.

Breakfast and lunch are provided Thursday through Sunday for Carvers and their assistants.

Lodging is not provided.

Dry camping is available near the event space if you wish to use the designated area.

No pets are allowed on site.

You may display a few pieces for sale in front of your carving booth.

Display pieces must not block walkways or create tripping hazards.

If you would like a dedicated selling space for carvings, please complete the attached vendor form. The cost is $100 for a 10'x12' selling space that will be near your carving booth - this is for selling carvings ONLY

You are provided a 10'x12' carving space for your main piece.

An additional 10 feet of space behind your carving area is available for tents and personal setup.

Only you and your designated assistant may be inside your carving space.

Assistants must be 18 years or older.

Children must be supervised at all times.

Carvers are responsible for all personal belongings.
